

Edgar L. Potter

Edgar Lee Potter, 73, Independence, died Saturday, Sept. 28, 2002, at his home.

Mr. Potter was born Nov. 6, 1928, in Barberton, Ohio. He was a 1947 graduate of Barberton High School and attended Ohio State University. He moved to Missouri, where he worked in the plumbing and hardware business with Ardith and Sam Blaser. He married Carolyn Elgin in 1964. He worked for 20 years at Owens Corning Fiberglas in Kansas City, Kan. He also worked for the Raytown School District, Allis-Chalmers, Mound Grove Cemetery and Price Chopper. He attended the Winner Road Church of Christ and was an adult leader in Boy Scout Troop 192. He was preceded in death by his parents, Victor and Verda Potter.

His survivors include his wife, Carolyn Potter, a son, Steven Potter, a daughter, Kristin Knight, and two grandsons, Mikael and Kodiak Knight, all of Missouri; two brothers,

Edwin Potter, Florida, and Richard Potter, Virginia; a sister, Shirley Moon, Ohio; and several cousins, nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the George C. Carson and Sons Independence Chapel. Burial will be at a later date in Mound Grove Cemetery, Independence. Friends may call from 10 to 11 a.m. Friday at the chapel. The family suggests contributions to the Carondelet Hospice of Blue Springs.